IAN Mentoring Program

Mentees are directed to the IAN website to get all the information about his program. There is a box to check on the workshop registration form to request a mentor. This helps identify those new naturalists needing a mentor. Several regional groups of IAN members continue to meet at mini-workshops. Veteran members can share ideas and mentor new members. No mentoring was done during 2009.

Master Conservationist

IAN continues to sponsor the Master Conservationist Program. Cost paid out covers the IAN booklets provided to each participant. No money was given out from this fund during the 2009 year.

Jr. Naturalists

New Catfish patches were printed this year and were made available for $2/patch.

Joe Halbur Scholarship

As of December the amount in the Joe Halbur Scholarship CD was $5262.00
As of December the amount in the Joe Halbur Scholarship savings account was $1829.53
The fall fundraiser raised $1712.00. The sale of naturalist t-shirts, canvas totes, Halloween Scripts, Scat Cookbook, along with the silent and live auction, and photo contest, were used to raise money for the fund. The scholarship amount awarded is $500. Logan Roberts, a freshman at Simpson College, was selected as this year's recipient.

Newsletter

Three newsletters were produced and distributed via email. The newsletter is also available online. A few newsletters are delivered by mail.

Grants

No grants were awarded during the 2009 year.

IAN Web Page

At the end of 2009 a contract with Inukshuk Technologies, LLC, was signed by Lisa Anderson, President, for a redesign of and hosting of the IAN web page. The new address will be www.iowanaturalists.org and transition should be completed by January 2010. The site will include many of the same sections as the previous page including the IAN ExCom and Standing Committees, IAN's newsletter, publications, membership, job announcements, professional standards and links. A new section will be a member's only page with a username and password required. In the members section will be more sensitive information such as a group list with full names and photos. Cari Burnstedt, Henry Co, continues her position as the webmaster.

Fund Raising

A total of $1,712 was raised during the 2009 Fall Auction.
