Logan Roberts (Warren) took over the vacated chair in March of 2014.

Junior Naturalist

Diane Hall (Marshall) is now the committee chair. Two new patches were ordered this year: goldfinch and wild rose.

Newsletter

Jackie Gautsch (Iowa DNR) has stepped down as the newsletter editor. Kelly Dix (Pottawattamie) has stepped in for 2015 as the editor. Three newsletters were produced and distributed via email. The newsletter is also available online on www.iowanaturalists.org

REAP Alliance Liaison Remains Vacant

We are currently looking for a member of IAN to fulfill this role. Chair duties include attending REAP meetings in Des Moines and forwarding information to the IAN listserve every other month. Please contact an ExCom member if you are interested in volunteering for this position.

IAN Web Page

Cari Nicely (Henry) continues her position as the webmaster.

Fund Raising

In 2014, the Fundraising Committee was responsible for all fundraising activities at the Fall IAN Workshop. They were able to raise over $1,200 for IAN at this conference. The Halloween Hike booklet is now going digital. Emily Herring (Story) has stepped down from her position as chair of the committee. She has been replaced by Mary Bulger (Lee).

Travelling Exhibits Committee

The prairie exhibit still making its rounds, and the schedule is posted on the IAN website. The Wade into Your Watershed exhibit committee is in the process of working with the National Mississippi River Museum and Aquarium on an exhibit.
