5. Summer 2020- Lee County or Wilderness Committee

6. Fall 2020- Indian Creek Nature Center

7. Action/Discussion Items-

1. $10,000 idea- The three ideas were voted on and the NatureCorps idea was the majority of IAN membership votes. Jess Wagner made a motion to destroy the $10,000 idea ballots, seconded by Elizabeth Schramm, motion approved.

2. Ex-Com Voting- Michelle Berns and Amy Loving were re-elected to serve a second term. Cindy Blobaum made a motion to destroy the ballots, seconded by Jess Wagner, motion approved.

3. Honorary Member- Mike Krebill- Karen Phelps made a motion to elect Mike Krebill as an honorary member of IAN, seconded by Chelsea Ewen-Rowcliffe, motion approved.

4. IAN Booklets Update- Rebekah Beall-Warburton presented the IAN Booklet Update. Adam Janke with ISU Extension informed IAN that the original booklets need to be updated for accessibility reasons. Adam is happy to take on this project with a possible REAP-CEP grant for funding. If we go forward with this IAN would have to give the copyright to ISU. IAN and the original text and illustration authors will need to sign off on this for updates to go forward. In addition, to pursue the grant, ISU needs a letter of support from IAN. Other support from IAN would include committee work, feedback design, content, and editing. Heidi Anderson made a motion to write a letter of support from IAN to update the booklets, seconded by Beth Wagge, motion approved.

5. Carpooling Efficiency Award- Muscatine County, Iowa County, and Poweshiek County all rode together (five total) and received the award.

6. Host County Recognition- Black Hawk County was given a certificate of appreciation for hosting Fall IAN.

7. Rare Sightings- Deb Karwell saw a Red-footed tortoise and a Bearded Dragon running loose. Chelsea Ewen-Rowcliffe saw a new area in Mitchell County and found tons of Baltimore Checkerspot Butterflies. Jenny Meyer saw Giant Leopard Slugs at the library.

8. Other- None

8. Adjourn- (5:15?) Karen Phelps made a motion to adjourn the meeting seconded by Elizabeth Schramm, motion approved.
